HUNTING, FISHING AND OTHER POSSIBILITIES

Whether you enjoy fishing, hunting or simply enjoy nature, you will find an abundance of outdoor pursuits available on Hay Island. Hay Island has an expertly crafted full sporting clays & five-stand course in addition to a 300 yard rifle range. Hay Island has its own Wildlife Management Unit with an extended hunting season providing numerous hunting opportunities for white tailed deer as well as wild Austrian boar.

For the angler, this area of Georgian Bay has some of the best fishing in North America, with deep waters in which run a bounty of both Chinook and Coho salmon and small mouth bass.

Other outdoor activities can be enjoyed on the island year round. In summer months, hiking, canoeing, sailing, kayaking, paddle boarding, swimming or ATVing. In winter, the island offers ice fishing, snowmobiling, cross-country skiing and snowshoeing.
